LOT 1597

A Chamberlain's Worcester porcelain Imari decorated part service, early 19th century, decorated in the 'thumb and finger' Japan pattern No. 276, comprising two saucer dishes, diameter 19.5cm, ten saucers, oval sucrier and cover with ring knop, seven teacups and four coffee cans, together with two further coffee cans and a teacup and saucer in the same pattern (faults and repairs).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2 saucer dishes - one with minuscule nick to top rim edge, otherwise both ok with some typical rubbing to the gilding and some black pitting to the glaze primarily visible to the underside.

10 saucers - 2 ok, 6 with small star or haircracks but otherwise ok, 1 badly worn, 1 riveted.

Sucrier - very minor chip to footrim, otherwise ok.

7 teacups - 1 riveted, 3 ok with very minor star/haircracks or a tiny nick which are all quite negligible, 3 ok with some very minor staining to the footrims.

4 coffee cans - 2 ok, 1 badly cracked, 1 with minor crack and nick.
