

Wristwatches and Pocket Watches / Thu, 15th October 2026 / Lot 1115

LOT 1115

An early George III gold and shagreen pair cased keywind open-faced gentleman's pocket watch, the gilt fusee movement with verge escapement, the finely pierced and engraved balance cock with diamond endstone, the backplate detailed 'Fras Perigal LONDON 15259', the white enamelled dial with black Roman hour numerals, the case interior with 'SG' case maker's mark and numbered '15259', London 1763, total weight 60g, case diameter 3.7cm, the gilt metal and shagreen outer case with studded decoration, outer case diameter 4.5cm. Note: Francis Perigal (II) was a renowned London watchmaker, born in 1734, son of Francis Perigal I, apprenticed in 1748 and made free of the Clockmakers' Company from 1756 to 1775.

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

1115. Generally good cosmetic condition, no significant damage or repairs.

Outer case with typical light surface scratches and wear to gilt. Shagreen in good order, Three small studs missing to borders. Hinge is good and closes tightly.

Gold case in good condition, hinge is good and closes tightly. Nice clear hallmark to interior.

Dial in good clean condition with only minor light surface scratches.

Movement appears to be in good clean condition but is currently fully wound. The balance is free, but it does not tick or run.

Created: Thu, 8th October 2026 12:04