

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 15th October 2026 / Lot 1205

LOT 1205

An early 19th century French ormolu cased mantel clock with eight day movement striking on a bell via an outside countwheel with silk suspension, the white enamel dial with black Roman numerals and inscribed 'Mme. Gentilhomme, Palais Royal à Paris', the case modelled with a classical youth standing beside a lyre and another stringed instrument, on a rectangular base and bun feet, height 45cm, with pendulum. Provenance: from the estate of a Sussex gentleman.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1205. Generally good condition, typical light surface scratches and wear, but no significant damage or repairs. Small chip to side of one winding hole on dial.

Both trains of the movement wind smoothly, it is currently running and striking on hour and half hours, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.

Created: Fri, 9th October 2026 13:46