

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 15th October 2026 / Lot 1235

LOT 1235

A 19th century mahogany tavern or Act of Parliament clock with eight day single train movement, the 19-inch painted circular dial with black Roman hour numerals, cast brass bezel and convex glass, the trunk with hinged door and scroll mouldings, height 111cm, with pendulum and a weight.

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

1235. The 19 inch painted wood dial with scratches, scuffs and wear.

Few nicks and chips to circular surround, otherwise glass and brass bezel door in good order.

Hands are a bit loose.

Case has had some restoration including some inserts to the left of the trunk and a restored underside/apron of trunk.

Movement winds smoothly but the clock is not currently running/

19 inch dial, approx 22 inch total diameter.

Created: Mon, 12th October 2026 12:13