LOT 1222

A late 19th century French gilt spelter mantel clock with eight day movement striking on a bell, the white enamelled dial with Roman hour numerals and outer Arabic minutes, the rococo scroll moulded case with flower festoon above a seated young couple to the front, on scroll legs, height 39cm, with pendulum, giltwood stand and glass dome with ebonized base.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1222. Generally in good clean condition, typical light surface scratches and wear, but gilding is bright and in good order.

Dial with minor chip at 9 o'clock and small hairline, otherwise good.

Both trains of the movement wind smoothly, strike mechanism works, and it is currently running, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.

Glass dome in good order, but does not fit the ebonized base perfectly.
