LOT 1187

A late 19th century French lacquered brass carriage clock, the eight day movement striking and repeating on a gong, the white enamelled circular dial with black Arabic hour numerals and flower festoons and inscribed 'Ollivant & Botsford Paris', within a pierced and engraved gilt fretwork surround decorated with flowers and foliate scrolls, the case with swing handle above bevelled glass panels and Corinthian fluted corner columns, height 19.2cm, with leather case.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1187. The case is a little dusty and dirty, so would certainly benefit from a clean.

Some minor pitting to gilt lacquer on the top and around base.

Tiny chips to corners of front and back panels, but largely hidden beneath the framing.

Dial in good clean condition.

Neither train of the movement winds and it does not run, however the repeat striking mechanism is working, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.
