

LOT 1251

An early 20th century mahogany cased barograph with lacquered brass mechanism and clockwork recording drum, all beneath a bevelled five-glass removable cover, the base fitted with a single fusee drawer containing a collection of charts, some with recordings, length 36.8cm, together with a similar oak cased barograph, length 35cm, an oak cased aneroid barometer and two books.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1251. Both in generally good condition.
All glass panels appear to be in good order.
Both cases with typical scuffs and sear.
Both clockwork mechanisms wind smoothly and are currently running, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock, watch or scientific instrument.
Both brass fittings with some wear.
