

LOT 504

A gold, lapis lazuli, seed pearl and imitation turquoise set oval hinged bangle, the front with a coronet above an 'S' motif on a lapis lazuli ground, between two smaller oval lapis lazuli set sides, engraved at the back 'Given by Lady Ravensworth to Louisa Barrington on her marriage 3rd July 1845 left by her to Augusta Maclagan 17th June 1884', weight 27.5g, inside width 5.8cm.

Estimate: £600 - £900

Condition Report

There have been a number of repairs to the bangle.
Both shoulders of the bangle have been damaged in the past and solder repaired, but also two sections of gold have been added to the interior to support the piece structurally in these areas.
The right shoulder is split at the front (the side with the hinge).
There is also another additional piece of gold connecting the central panel to the right panel, evident from the interior of the bangle. There is a split from the side of the central panel in this area.
Some losses to the surrounds supporting the lapis lazuli panels, particularly to the right side of the central panel, and to the left side of the right panel.
Some slight scratching to the lapis panels, some noticeable peeling to the pearls.
A small dent to the back of the bangle.

Created: Thu, 29th October 2026 13:31