

LOT 775

An 18ct gold and diamond ring, designed as a coiled snake, mounted with on old cut diamond, London 1911, weight 8.1g, ring size approx O.

Estimate: £600 - £800

Condition Report

The head of the snake has been bent slightly and it looks like it may have detached from its original position as one edge of the gold is quite rough and unfinished.
The ring overall is slightly misshaped when looking at it side on.
Typical scratching/scuffing to the gold.
Diamond measurements approx. 4mm x 4mm
There is cavity to the surface of the stone, to the side of the table facet, where possibly a flaw came away when it was originally faceted, it doesn't has the typical appearance of a chip.
There is dirt trapped behind the diamond which is giving it a dark appearance.

Created: Fri, 30th October 2026 08:47