

LOT 441

A late Victorian silver mounted and stag antler handled four-piece carving set with steel blades, comprising two carving knives and two forks, Sheffield 1882 by Joseph Rodgers & Sons, cased, total length 46cm, together with a similar plate mounted stag antler handled three-piece carving set, comprising knife, fork and steel, cased.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

441. Set of four is in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Case is good to interior but exterior is a bit shabby with some lifting and loss to covering and one hinge is wobbly.
Three-piece set with some more significant wear and degrading to handle of knife, otherwise set ok with typical wear. Case ok, but a bit tatty and worn.

Created: Sat, 31st October 2026 11:28