

LOT 336

A pair of Edwardian silver novelty pepper casters, each in the form of a chick with engraved feather detail and detachable head cover, London 1904 by Charles & George Asprey, total weight 52.7g, height 3.5cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

336. Both in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches, but nothing significant. Good crisp definition to plumage. Covers fit tightly. Good clear hallmarks.

Created: Sat, 31st October 2026 11:30