

LOT 369

An Elizabeth II silver novelty three-piece condiment set, each in the form of a fish cast with scale detail, comprising a mustard with hinged head and spoon, a salt and a pepper caster, each with a detachable head, London 1965 by C.J. Vander Ltd, total weight 207.9g, height of mustard 6cm.

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

369. All pieces in good condition. No damage or repairs, just typical light surface scratches but nothing of any real significance. Hinge on mustard is good. Glass liner has a chip to its edge. Push on lids fit tightly. Good clear hallmarks.

Created: Tue, 3rd November 2026 13:02