

LOT 1074

Two Chinese famille rose porcelain cricket boxes and covers, early 20th century, each of quatrelobed form, the sides painted with a continuous scene of boys, the cover with pierced cash motifs, length 12.4cm and 12.9cm (one with minor chip to cover).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1074. Larger box - generally good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Two small chips to underside of rim. Otherwise typical light surface scratches and wear to glaze and enamels.
Smaller box - two small vertical hairlines (each approx 1.5cm long) to rim on one side, otherwise no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear to glaze and enamels.

Created: Thu, 5th November 2026 15:33