

LOT 1067

A near pair of Chinese blue and white porcelain vases, 20th century, each shouldered tapering body and flared neck painted with double happiness characters amidst peonies and scrolling foliage, between a pair of dragon scroll handles, heights 43cm and 43.5cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1067. Both in generally good clean condition, no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches to glaze. One with small star hairline to base.

Created: Tue, 10th November 2026 11:22