

LOT 1043

A Chinese Dowager Empress Cixi style porcelain plate, late 19th century, the centre painted and gilt with two dragons amidst peony on a turquoise ground, within a polychrome lotus and scrolling tendril yellow ground rim, diameter 24.2cm (minor rim chip), together with a Canton famille rose enamelled celadon ground porcelain dish, late 19th century, diameter 24.8cm, and a later Canton porcelain plate, painted with a peacock, diameter 24.5cm.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1043. Dowager Empress plate - small chip to rim (approx 0.4cm x 0.5cm), otherwise in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear to glaze and enamels.
Celedon plate - generally good condition, typical light surface scratches and wear to glaze and enamels. Some slight retouching to gilt rim.
Other plate - generally good condition, some slight gilt retouching to rim.

Created: Tue, 10th November 2026 11:36